Go East of your dream and farm.
Let peace and silence spin your yarn
What harm can befall thee in yon
"Wilderness of Clove."
Go on east of ginger trees
Go soft, and silent like the breeze
With ease be off and wander in yon "Wilderness of Clove."
Go on past the goldenrods
Where fools and angels lose their odds
And gods of our ancestors
Did immerse themselves in Clove.
Go on toward the "Crimson Shore"
Beyond this life of metaphors
Where doors of understanding's house
Decorates He them with Clove.
"Be Lions roaring in the forests of Knowledge,
Whales swimming in the oceans of life."
Prepare to meet Baha'u'llah in the "Garden of Clove."

Far beyond where horizons stretch
And lands slip into blueness
Let me walk the road with you
And dare myself.
I will put a pebble in my shoe;
And watch me walk,
I can walk.
I will name the pebble dare.
We will be together
Walking there.
Dare shall be carried
And when each has had enough,
I will take the pebble from my shoe,
Saying, "meet your new road" . . .
Then I will take your hand in mine
Finally glad
That you are here by my side.

Don't Quit Now

When things go wrong as they sometimes will;
When the road you're trudging seems
  all uphill,
When the funds are low and the debts
  are high
And you want to smile, but you have to sigh,
When cares are pressing you down a bit—
Rest if you must, but—don't you quit.
Life is queer with its twists and turns,
As everyone of us sometimes learns,
And many a fellow turns about
When he might have won had he stuck it out.
Don't give up, though the pace seems slow—
You may succeed with another blow.
Often the goal is nearer than
It seems to a faint and faltering man.
Often the struggle has been given up
When he might have captured the victor's cup:
And he learned too late when the night
  came down,
How close he was to the golden crown.
Success is failure turned inside out—
The silver tint of the clouds of doubt,
And you never can tell how close your are,
It may be near when it seems afar;
So stick to the fight when you're hardest hit—
It's when things seem worst that you mustn't quit.

May I give you something?

I hope you'll like it.
It will help you survive, but it may give you pain.

Well then, I give you an optimistic heart.

To be nobody-but-yourself in a world which is doing its best night and day, to make you everybody else—means to fight the hardest battle which any human being can fight, and never stop fighting.

Only as long as we can laugh at ourselves are we nobody else.

And what lies before us
Are tiny matters compared

We worry as though
We had a thousand years to live!
Let us rather always
Strive after the gentle
Humor of the heart,
Which knows how to smile
at the world,
at our fellow-men
and at itself,
and which can stand a little above things.

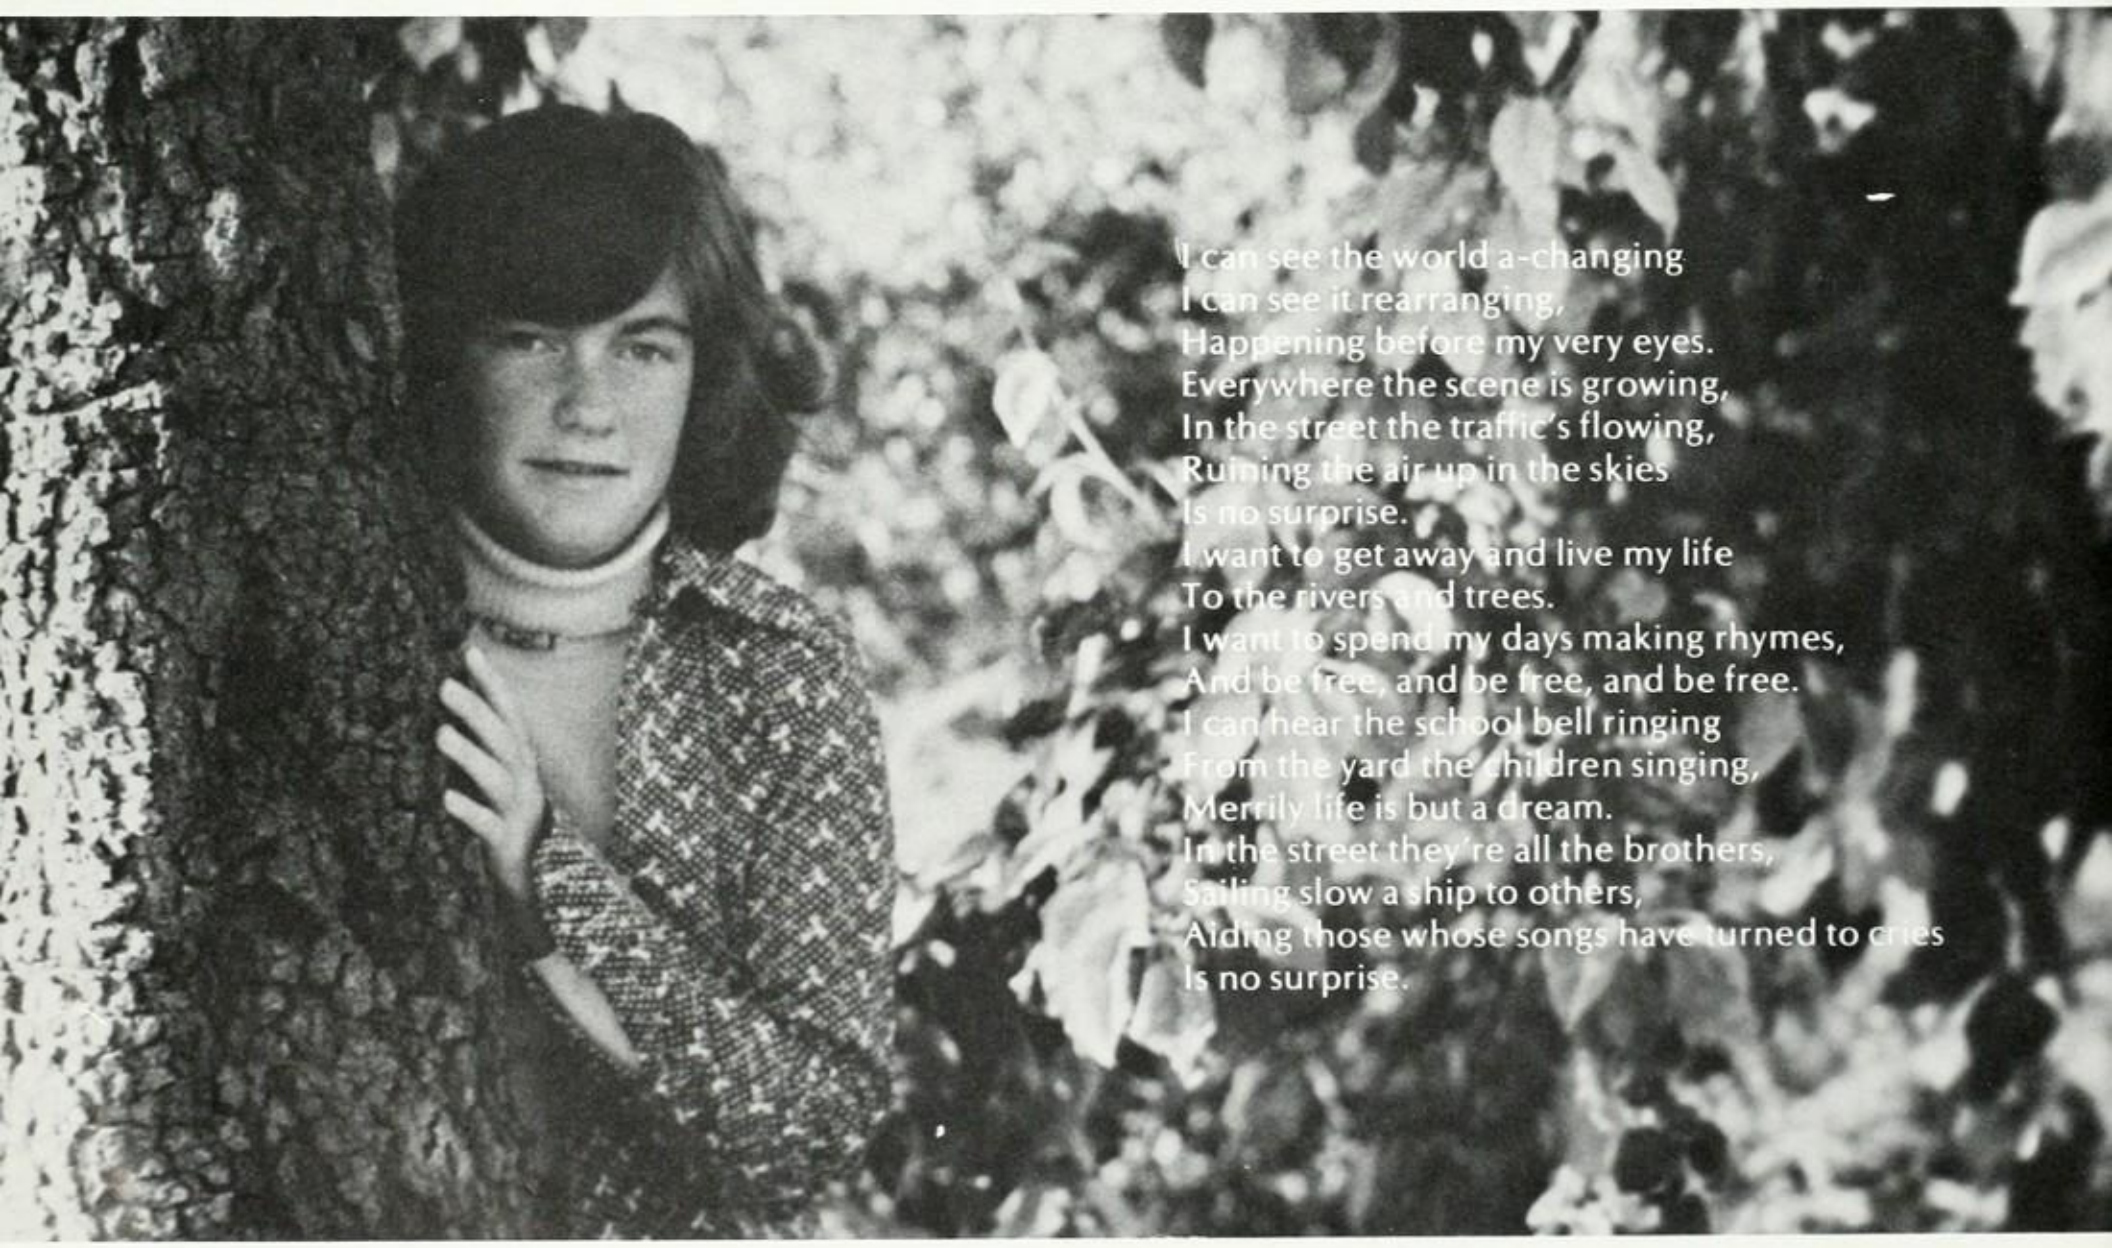
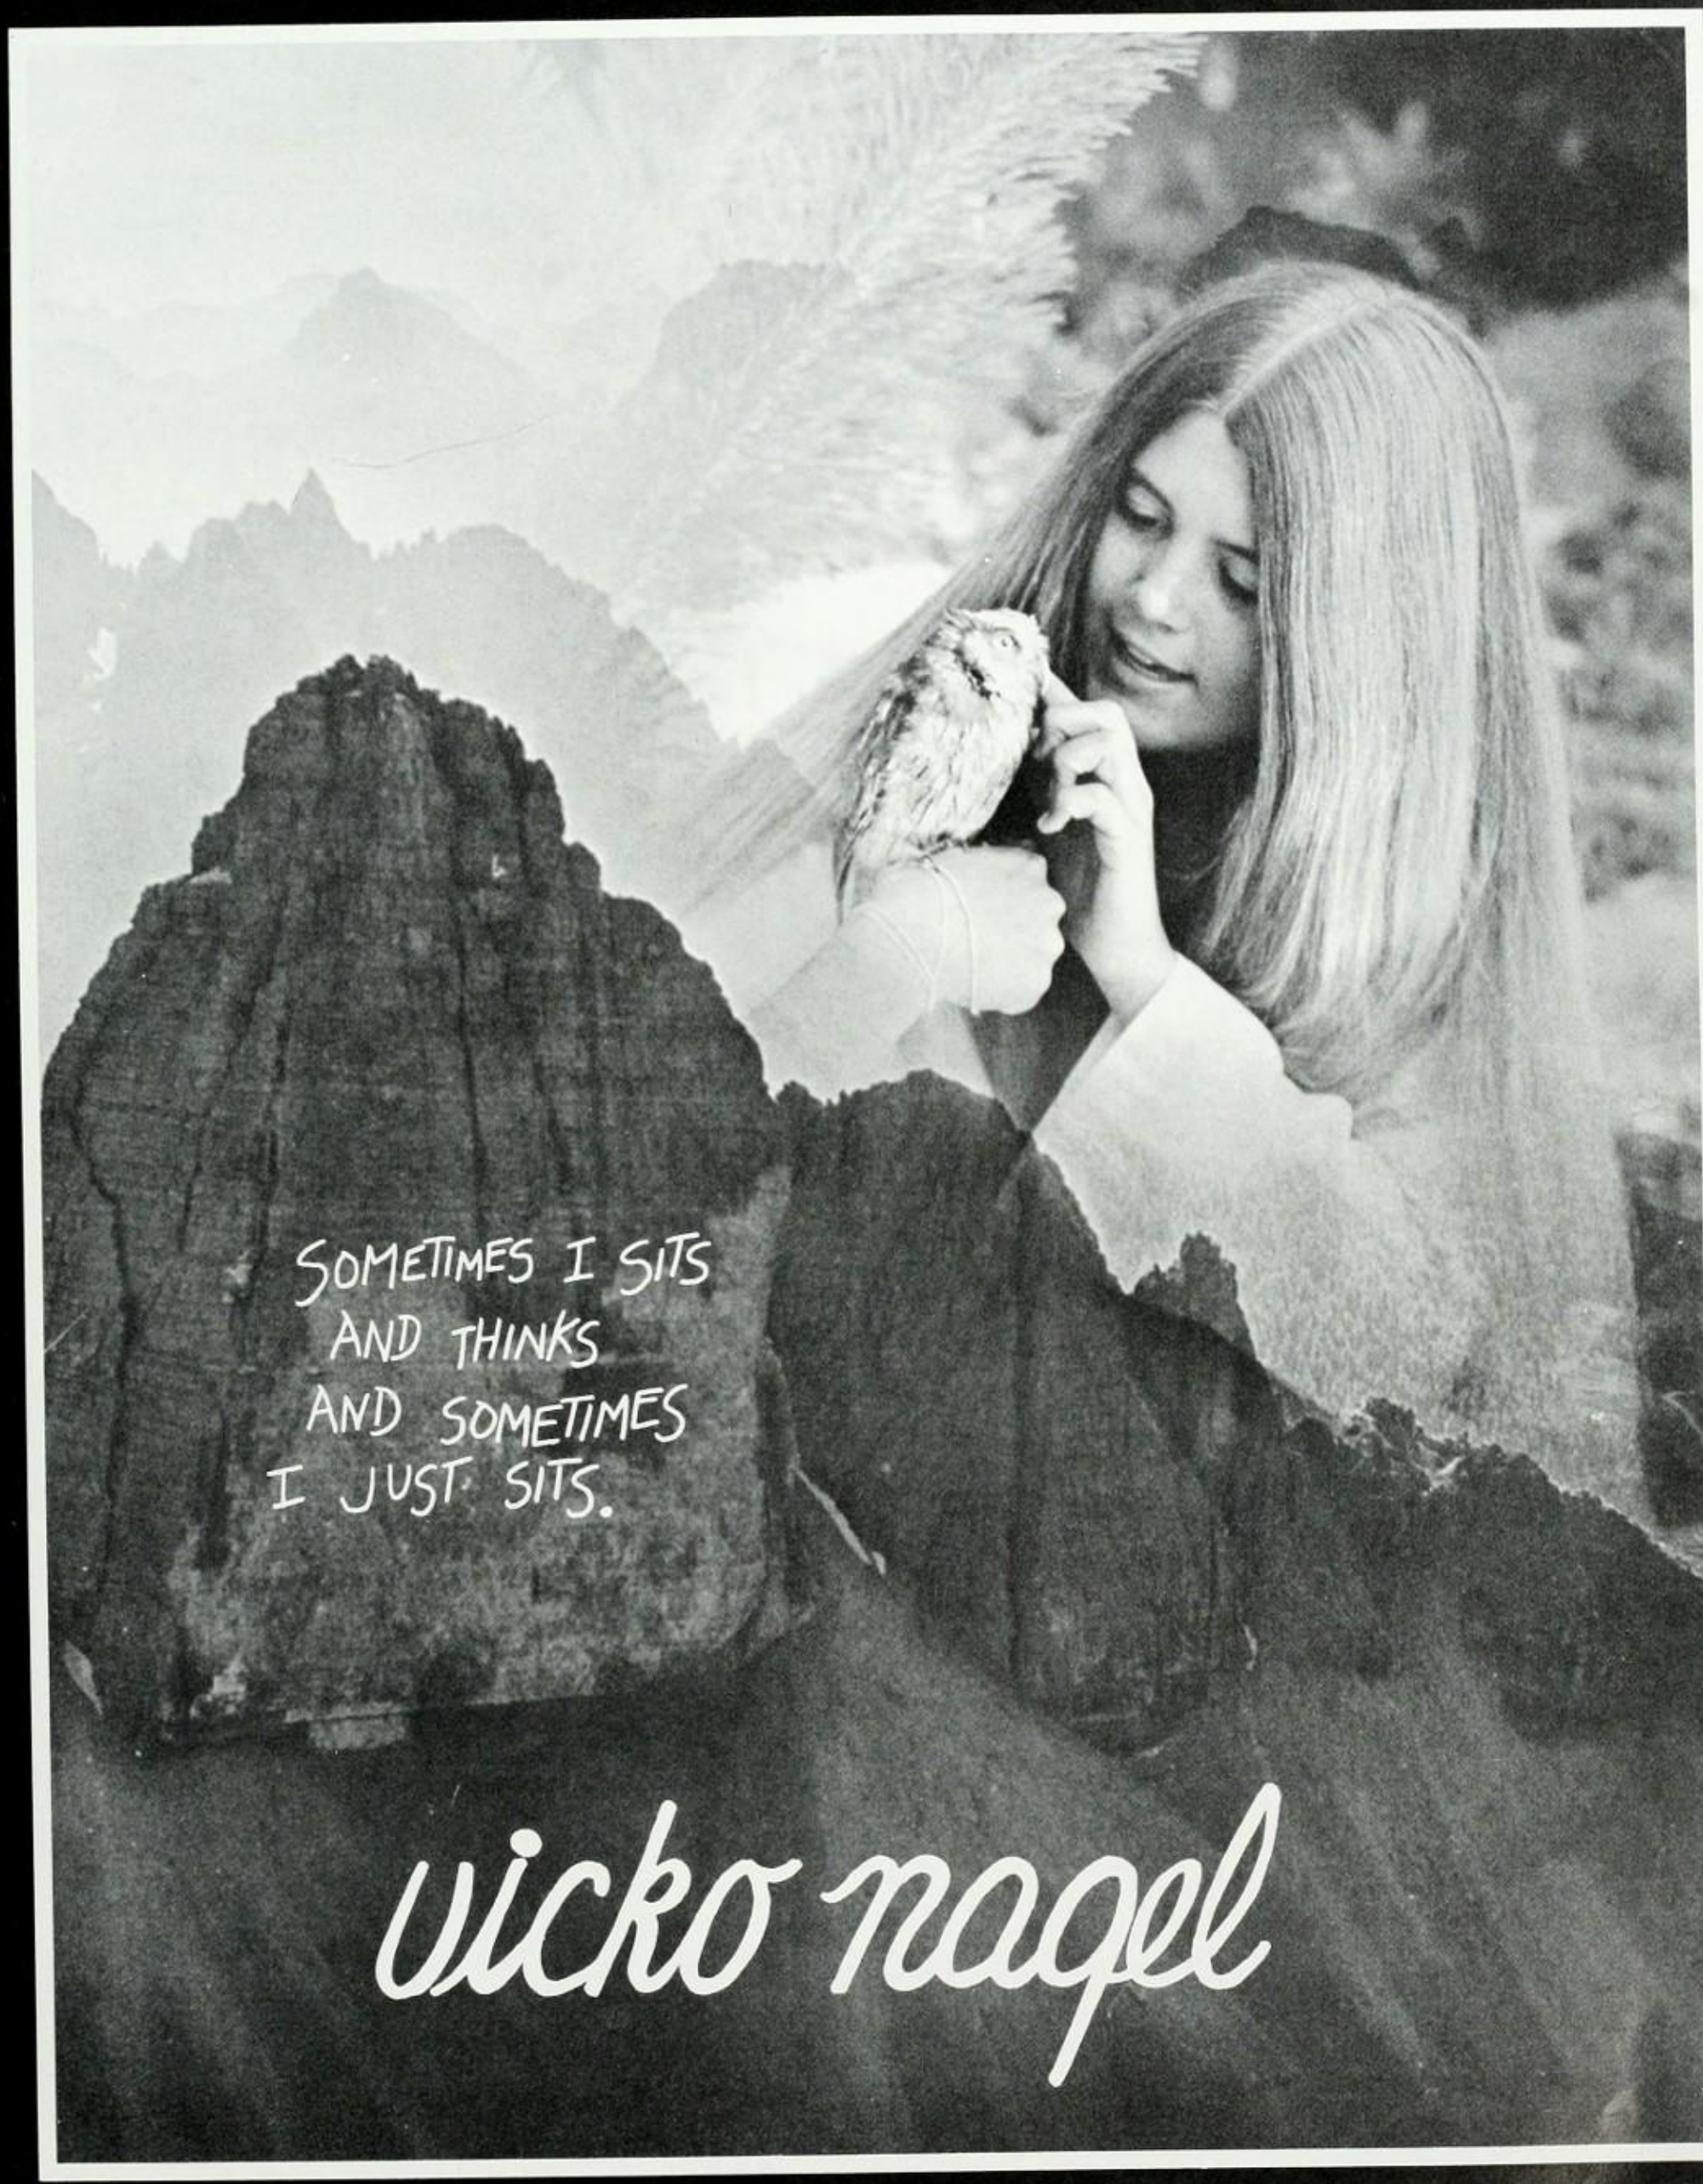
Isn't it funny
How a bear likes honey?
Buzz! Buzz! Buzz!
I wonder why he does?



I can see the world a-changing
I can see it rearranging,
Happening before my very eyes.
Everywhere the scene is growing,
In the street the traffic's flowing,
Ruining the air up in the skies
Is no surprise.
I want to get away and live my life
To the rivers and trees.
I want to spend my days making rhymes,
And be free, and be free, and be free.
I can hear the school bell ringing
From the yard the children singing,
Merrily life is but a dream.
In the street they're all the brothers,
Sailing slow a ship to others,
Aiding those whose songs have turned to cries
Is no surprise.



SOMETIMES I SITS
AND THINKS
AND SOMETIMES
I JUST SITS.

The Road goes ever on and on
Down from the door where it began.
Now far ahead the Road has gone,
And I must follow, if I can,
Pursuing it with eager feet,
Until it joins some larger way
Where many paths and errands meet.
And whither then? I cannot say.

The Road goes ever on and on
Down from the door where it began.
Now far ahead the Road has gone,
And I must follow, if I can,
Pursuing it with weary feet,
Until it joins some larger way,
Where many paths and errands meet
And whither then? I cannot say.

The Road goes ever on and on
Out from the door where it began.
Now far ahead the Road has gone,
Let others follow it who can!
Let them a journey new begin,
But I at last with weary feet
Will turn towards the lighted inn,
My evening rest and sleep to meet.

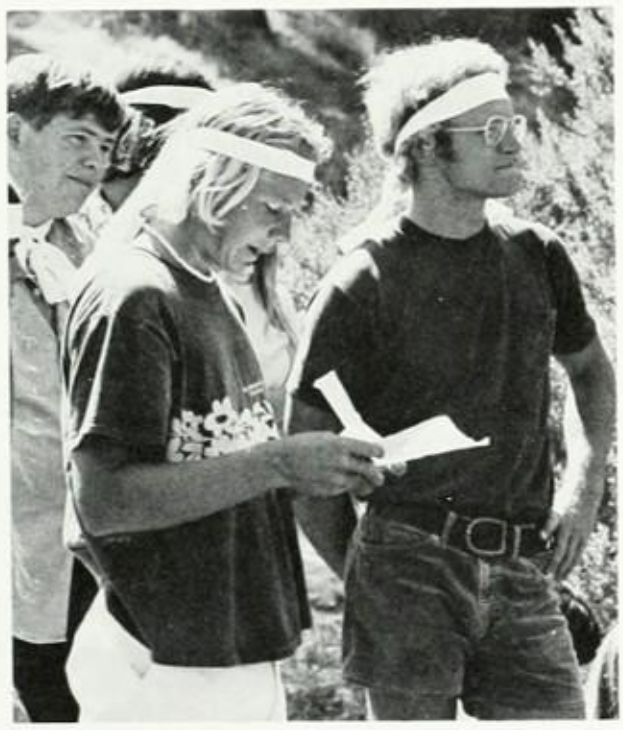
CAMP LAGUNA



Oh wow man, they said the food was gonna be better this year.

The first Camp Laguna occurred two years past. Because of its GREAT success, and the terrific enthusiasm for a repeat of historic events, we had Camp Laguna '74. Some of these events included a hick square dance, capture the flag with flour sacks, rabbits vs. turtles in a track meet, and frequent indigestion from the food. All in all, however, Camp Laguna achieved its goals in promoting a closer student body, and enthusiasm for the upcoming year.

Kenny just can't handle the scenery.

SWIM MEET

"Check that bikini!"

This year at the Swim Meet, two records were kept. The seniors, never losing spirit, lost for the 4th time in a row, and the sophomores won for the 2nd consecutive year. Mr. White, unfortunately, was not thrown in, as is customary. Some highlights were Tom Patten's presence, Solveig's drowning, and Col. Roberson's "Hubba, Hubba, Seniors."

. . . the better it looks!"

But my suit!

"Eat your heart out, Mark Spitz!"

LAPA LAPA

The Lapa Lapa Party is one of Laguna's traditional events. It is also traditional for the party to be lots of fun. This year's was no exception. Also as is traditional, the mighty class of 1975 won last place in the volleyball tournament. The food was great, and everyone went home very full and hoarse from talking so much.
